Dear Friend of Kids,

It's been a busy fall / winter season here at Youth For Christ.

We are doing Breakfast Clubs in four different area high schools; with total average attendance for these running more than 350 kids average each week.

Our after school Drop-in Ministry at The Lighthouse has grown to where we are at capacity of kids many days.

We have had many one-on-one times with young people; always with an eye to sharing the love of Jesus with them.

Luke* has come to The Lighthouse off and on for several months. He has said that he doesn't believe in God or Jesus; but he keeps coming back because he likes the fact that our staff and volunteers care for him. Someday, soon I hope, he will stop struggling with God's love for him and be open to a relationship with Jesus. Without a father in the home, I know that this is a terrible struggle for him. Pray with me for that.

Yes, we use a lot of games and short term fun to build relationships with young people, but it is always looking at the longer, eternal, view. Thanks for helping us do that!

Also, If God has laid young people on your heart, this may be where He wants you to be on the "front lines" of seeing young lives changed forever. Between the Breakfast Clubs and Drop-in times, we are in need of several more volunteers or part-time or full-time people.

In His Service, for our kids,

Chuck Rudolph
